Grant applications to address community issues

In 2011, the Central Okanagan Foundation will administer $80,000 in Community Social Development Grants and $22,000 in Grants to Address the Sexual Exploitation of Youth on behalf of the City of Kelowna.

Registered non-profit organizations interested in applying for Community Social Grants are invited to attend an information session on Thursday, January 13, 2011, 1 p.m. in the Pacific Safety Products Boardroom at the Rotary Centre for the Arts (421 Cawston Ave).

The session will cover eligibility requirements and the application process. To register, please contact Cheryl Miller, Grants Manager, Central Okanagan Foundation at cheryl@centralokanaganfoundation.org or 250-861-6160.

Community Social Development Grants assist registered, non-profit societies and community organizations deliver innovative, prevention-oriented programs designed to improve the quality of life for residents in Kelowna.

Grants to Address the Sexual Exploitation of Youth fund programs that directly address sexual exploitation issues for those under 19 years of age within the City of Kelowna.

Details about an organization's grant request must be summarized within three pages. What is the need for this program? What community support exists and how will this program cooperate with agencies providing similar services? What are the measurable performance targets and dates for implementation?

Describe the population to be served. Outline other sources of funding being pursued. Explain how this project fits within the policy framework in the Official Community Plan.

Changes to the Official Community Plan highly recommend attend info session

For more information on these grants or to download the application forms, please visit kelowna.ca/grants.

Completed applications are due at 3:30 p.m. Friday, February 25, 2011, and should be dropped off at the Central Okanagan Foundation office located at 217-1889 Springfield Road.
